

1000
friends of Oregon

Proudly Presents

Presented in partnership with Better Eugene-Springfield Transit (BEST) and WE CAN Eugene, who are committed to making Eugene and Oregon a great place.

Water Rising: An Evening of Art and Conservation

October 12, 2016

5:00 - 7:30pm

First United Methodist Church
1367 Olive St. Eugene, OR

www.friends.org/news/events

Meet internationally-renowned sculptor, Garth Evans, and award-winning prose author, Leila Philip, as they present their latest, critically-acclaimed collaboration, Water Rising - a book of watercolors and poetry inspired by the natural world. Water Rising supports environmental stewardship and 100% of proceeds from book sales go to non-profits. Learn more at www.water-rising.com

This event is FREE and open to the public. Refreshments will be served. A few copies of Water Rising will be raffled off to lucky winners!

RSVP at bit.ly/WaterRising