

OREGON WHERE PAST is PRESENT

MUSEUM OF NATURAL AND CULTURAL HISTORY

From the first Americans at Paisley Caves to the dynamic cultures of today's tribes, the new Oregon—Where Past is Present explores 14,000 years of Oregon stories, and invites you to tell your own.

CAMPUS COMMUNITY RECEPTION AND EXHIBIT PREVIEW

Friday, November 4

12:00-1:00 p.m.

Explore the redesigned exhibit, talk with the curators, and enjoy lunchtime refreshments at this special event for the university community, featuring a welcome address by MNCH Executive Director Jon Erlandson, UO Provost and Senior Vice President Scott Coltrane, and Many Nations Longhouse Steward Gordon Bettles.

1680 East 15th Avenue, Eugene
(541) 346-3024
natural-history.uoregon.edu