

“What Happened to Christianity in Post-Socialist Europe?”

István Povedák, Research Group for the Study of Religious Culture, Hungarian Academy of Sciences and University of Szeged, Senior Research Fellow

Monday, October 24, 2016, 3:30-5:30 pm

Knight Library Browsing Room
1501 Kincaid Street, Eugene
Free and open to the public

Dr. István Povedák is a Senior Research Fellow of the Research Group for the Study of Religious Culture, Hungarian Academy of Sciences and University of Szeged. His main fields of research are contemporary vernacular religiosity, modern mythologies, and the cult of heroes and celebrities. His books include Pseudo Heroes and Fake Gods? (in Hungarian); Heroes and Celebrities in Central Eastern Europe; Landscape as a Factor for Creating Identity, and Shamans Everywhere: The Multidisciplinary Analysis of Contemporary Paganism (in Hungarian).

Sponsors: Ira E. Gaston Bequest, Folklore Program, Oregon Humanities Center, Department of Religious Studies, European Studies, Russian, East European and Eurasian Studies

The University of Oregon is an equal-opportunity, affirmative-action institution committed to cultural diversity and compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act. This publication will be made available in accessible formats upon request. Accommodations for people with disabilities will be provided if requested in advance by contacting emagee@uoregon.edu or calling 541-346-1505.