

Designer

Our Agency

Gallagher is a creative experience agency, trusted by the world's most influential brands to strategically design and execute their most innovative, ambitious, immersive experiences. We are a collective of tech-forward artists, designers, engineers, production specialists, fabricators and craftsmen working at the intersection of brand, technology, design & art. We've been designing, building, installing, producing, and managing innovative experiences for the last 20+ years. See our work at www.glgr.com

Our Creative Team

We are an interdisciplinary creative team focused on 360 immersive experience design in varying scales from overall complete spatial design to customized product packaging. We are a hybrid of architectural designers, graphic designers, artists, and industrial designers. We create visual concepts, by hand or using computer software, to communicate ideas that inspire, inform, or captivate consumers.

Seeking

We are currently seeking a design professional with multidisciplinary skills. This individual will be trained and versed in graphic design and/or visual arts and can visually illustrate an idea or story through 2D and 3D images. Use creative skills in art and design to communicate a story, message or idea.

Must have:

- + Degree in a design-based discipline
- + Understands how to design spatial, environmental and graphic elements and their use in various applications and scales.
- + Proficiency and speed in design software (i.e. Adobe Creative Suite)
- + Graphic design skills, layout Skills, creativity
- + Flexibility, attention to detail, handles rejection, works collaboratively within a team
- + Drawing sketching in various forms to communicate ideas, which can include anything from conceptual design ideas to artistic illustration.

Desired:

- + Experience working in a fast-paced agency and knowledge of innovative sports brands is highly desired.
- + Ability to design in 3D space utilizing design software such as Sketch-Up, Rhino or other related programs.
- + Multimedia and digital design and animation is a plus

Contact

Marci.Marlton@glgr.com