

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON

School of Music and Dance

WORLD MUSIC SERIES

presents De Cajón Project
Afro-Peruvian Music and Dance

Saturday, April 15 | 7:30 p.m.

Beall Concert Hall, Frohnmayer Music Building

$12 general, $8 students + seniors

Tickets.uoregon.edu | 541-346-4363

EO/AA/ADA institution committed to cultural diversity

RL
Romance Languages

LAS
Latin American Studies

FOLK
Folklore

DE CAJÓN Project is a community arts organization based in Seattle, WA dedicated to educating populations about the cultural contributions of Peruvians of African descent. As a movement we facilitate music and dance workshops; offer lectures and residencies; perform widely throughout the Pacific Northwest with our company; and build inter-cultural and inter-generational communities through art. We actively support similar efforts in Peru and collaborate with other individuals and groups that use art as an empowering tool for change.

