Interested in how contemporary art intersects with everyday experiences in a public elementary school? Join the KSMoCA summer program and participate in a fun and socially-engaged collaborative art project.

Over the course of 4 weeks, program participants will act as Artists In Residence at KSMoCA, a contemporary art museum inside an elementary school, to produce the KSMoCA International Art Fair through a collaborative, experiential learning program. The art fair will include a group of 25 elementary school student “docents” and art institutions in Portland including: PICA, UpFor, Newspace Center for Photography, PNCA, and more! The art fair will take place during Converge 45 (August 11-13) and is open to the public.

Space is limited, sign up now! www.pdx.edu/summer/
