Guest Juror • Nim Xuto

Nim Xuto is a painter, writer, and arts organizer, and works in the Portland Parks Summer Free For All program. Nim immigrated to the United States from Thailand in 1986. In 2008, she co-founded the Colored Pencils Art and Culture Council, a non-profit organization that created monthly cross-cultures poetry, fine art and traditional performance events funded by the Regional Arts and Culture Council. Nim worked as it's Executive Director with a diverse board and staff. In 2012, Nim started partnering with PP&R to create arts and culture events at Director Park and Multnomah Arts Center by inviting diverse communities to host events at PP&R facilities. The group used the events to welcome new refugees and integrate them into the community.

The Multnomah Arts Center gallery strives to reflect the values of the greater artistic community. People of all color, abilities, age, nationality, religion, sexual orientation, and gender identity are strongly encouraged to submit artwork.

To help ensure equal access to City programs, services, and activities, the City of Portland reasonably provides: translation and interpretation services, modifications, auxiliary aides, and services. Let us know if you need an accommodation.
