WEDNESDAY, MARCH 7TH
10:00 AM – 4:00 PM

Josefina Baez will stage a site-specific one-time performance around UO's campus, interrogating the idea of borders/no borders, migrant bodies, and the ties that bind us. As part of her performance, she is inviting UO community members to work with her to develop this original piece in a 2-hour workshop (10am - 12pm) that will then culminate in a public performance (2pm - 4pm). The workshop is limited to 12 participants.
