

A READING BY SUSAN CHOI:

Book Signing to Follow

4PM, MONDAY MAY 14, 2018
Knight Library Browsing Room

Award-winning writer Susan Choi will read from her work, followed by a book signing. Choi's writing explores themes of identity and the impact of the political sphere upon personal life. She is the author of four novels, The Foreign Student (1998), American Woman, finalist for the Pulitzer-Prize (2003), A Person of Interest (2008), and My Education (2013).

Books will be available for purchase at the event, courtesy of the Duck Store.

"We read A Person of Interest for one of the best reasons to read any fiction: to transcend the limitations of our own lives, to find out what it's like to be someone else, to recognize unmistakable aspects of ourselves staring back at us from the portrait of a stranger."

— Francine Prose, New York Times Book Review

"Choi's subject is contemporary America as much as it is America's past. The result is historical fiction with present-day relevance"

— Poets & Writers

SUSAN CHOI

Choi teaches English at Yale University, and was a finalist for the 2004 Pulitzer Prize.

Event Sponsors:

Clark Honors College; Division of Equity and Inclusion; Oregon Humanities Center's Endowment for Public Outreach in the Arts, Sciences and Humanities; Multicultural Center; Center for the Study of Women in Society; Department of English; Ethnic Studies; Women of Color Project; Common Reading Program

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON

Robert D. Clark
Honors College