Call for Artists: You Got The Look, A National Contemporary Jewelry Art Exhibit

SEATTLE, WA (August 4, 2018) –Now through October 8, Seattle’s Center on Contemporary Art (CoCA) seeks artists and craftspeople from across the US for You Got the Look, a national exhibition of contemporary art jewelry.

CoCA is seeking handcrafted art jewelry and accessories from a wide range of mediums. Pieces with bold colors, intricate cuts and/or complex patterns in aluminum, gold, sterling silver, bone, wood, felt, fiber, textile, and repurposed material are encouraged (no ivory). The exhibition will highlight wearable statement pieces and artists that push boundaries of jewelry, beauty and “value.” These are guidelines, not requirements. Works of all kinds are encouraged.

The juried exhibit will grant cash awards of: 1st - $350, 2nd - $250 and 3rd - $150.

Submitted works will be viewed and hand picked by selected jurors still to be announced. Deadline for all entries are October 8 at 11:59 PM PDT. Selected artists will be announced October 26 via CoCA’s website. Exhibition dates November 23 - December 22, 2018, with an opening reception on Thursday, November 29, 6pm – 9pm, as part of Pioneer Square Art Walk.
