

ar-ti-fact

Exploring Indigeneity in the 21st Century with artist Cannupa Hanska Luger

Photo by Marco Pavan

MUSEUM OF NATURAL
AND CULTURAL HISTORY

natural-history.uoregon.edu

Cosponsored by the Center for Environmental Futures, Native American Law Student Association, University of Oregon's Art and Design Academic Residential Community (ARC), Native American and Indigenous Studies ARC, Social Activism ARC, Student Sustainability Center, Craft Center, and the Environmental and Natural Resources Law Center.

EXHIBIT

ar-ti-fact

Now on view through August 2019

Museum of Natural and Cultural History
1680 East 15th Avenue, Eugene

Included with regular museum admission.

TALKS

SOCIAL ENGINEERING

Public talk by Cannupa Hanska Luger

5:00 p.m. | Thursday, November 15
UO Knight Law Center | Room 184

THIS IS A STEREOTYPE

Film screening and discussion with Cannupa Hanska Luger
and Talon Claybrook

6:00 p.m. | Friday, November 16
Museum of Natural and Cultural History

ARTIST TALK

With Cannupa Hanska Luger

12:00 p.m. | Saturday, November 17
Museum of Natural and Cultural History

Talks are free and open to the public .

WORKSHOPS

MAKING NATIVE SEED BALLS for Oregon ecological restoration

12:30 - 3:00 p.m. | Friday, November 16
UO Craft Center

1:00 - 5:00 p.m. | Saturday, November 17
Museum of Natural and Cultural History

Workshops are free and open to the public .

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON