Call for Artists: 2019 6X6NW – A Unique Community & National Art Exhibition

It's time for the 6X6NW call for artists! We're excited to begin the registration process for one of our favorite programs. We hope you will pARTicipate!

The Shoreline-Lake Forest Park Arts Council is currently accepting submissions for 6X6NW, a community art exhibition event featuring an estimated 700 works of art. Each artwork must be 6 x 6 inches and artists may enter up to 10 works of any medium (2D or 3D). There is a $6 fee to register. Registration is free for children 18 and under.

Entries will be exhibited during 6X6NW on October 5, 2019 and offered for sale to the public for $36 each. The Shoreline-Lake Forest Park Arts Council will receive a 60% commission on any works sold and artists may elect to waive their 40% commission and contribute their work(s) as a full donation to benefit the Arts Council's community arts programming and events.

Interested in taking pART? Registration and participation is open to all — no art background is required! For information and registration visit: www.shorelinearts.net/event-program/6x6nwcall/. Registered participants will receive 6 free tickets to the event at Shoreline Community College on October 5 (a $60 value). Prizes will be awarded in several categories, including People's Choice.

Entries Due: All 6 x 6 works of art must be received by the Arts Council office at the Shoreline Center by September 27 or postmarked by September 28. Please, no late entries! Earlier is better. Arts Council Address: 18560 1st AVE NE Shoreline, WA 98155

Now in its 4th year, 6X6NW is a program of the Shoreline-Lake Forest Park Arts Council and will be held on Saturday, October 5 at Shoreline Community College – 16101 Greenwood Ave N, Bldg. 9000, Shoreline, WA 98133.
