

For More Information:
Loi Heldt, Executive Director
541-953-9204
lheldt@chambermusicamici.org

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
October 23, 2019

Chamber Music Amici Calls For Submissions from Lane County
Artists of All Ages: Enter the Eleventh Amici Art Contest

Cash prize opportunity for Lane County artists

EUGENE, OR — Artists from across Lane County, including those under 18 years of age, are invited to enter the 11th Amici Art Contest for a chance to win cash prizes and to appear on Amici's posters, programs and other promotional materials during the 2020-2021 season.

This year's contest includes three categories: Youth (for entrants below 18 years of age), Open (over 18 years) and People's Choice. The Youth and Open categories will be announced Friday, February 14, 2019, and the People's Choice Award winner will be announced at the end of February. The five winners receive a cash prize of $200, and the People's Choice Award winner receives a cash prize of $100.

The Amici Art Contest will accept submissions, which include a completed application form, a high-resolution digital image of the artwork and a bio/background writeup, through Friday, January 10, 2019. Judges Anne Korn and Terry Way of Raven Frameworks, and Jane Halvorsen, media arts faculty at Lane Community College, will then choose the finalists. Finalists will be notified and their framed artwork due by Friday, January 31, at the Emerald Art Center, 500 Main Street, Springfield. The artwork will be displayed there for the month of February and at Cascade Manor during March and April.

The contest is held in cooperation with the Emerald Art Center, which will host a reception on the Second Friday Art Walk, February 14, 2019. The contest is sponsored by John and Linda Van Peenen.

For complete guidelines and more information about the contest, downloading the application form and reviewing examples of past winners, go to <https://chambermusicamici.org/event/amici-art-contest/>. For more information, call 541-953-9204 or email Executive Director Loi Heldt at lheldt@chambermusicamici.com.

Chamber Music Amici is a resident company of the Richard E. Wildish Community Theatre in Springfield, Ore., that also holds performances at the John G. Shedd Institute for the Arts in Eugene. Made up of a group of accomplished classical musicians, Amici has as its mission to produce exciting chamber music concerts and to promote a new generation of music lovers. Our concerts are fun and filled with variety brought by our virtuoso guests.

To learn more about Chamber Music Amici and see its exciting 2019-2020 concert offerings, go to chambermusicamici.org.

###

Creating Community Through Great Music

Chamber Music Amici ♦ PO Box 50824, Eugene, Or. 97405 ♦ 541.953.9204